

Possessives

Who's Alex = Who is Alex?

BUT

Whose hat is it? It's Alex's.

5 Write "Who's" or "Whose".

- 1, "... Who's Alex?"  "She is my neighbor."
2. "..... bike is it?"  "It's my cousin's."
3. "..... phone is it?"  "It's Emma's."
4. "..... that boy?"  "He's my brother."
5. "..... Mr. Kevin?"  "He's the new teacher."
6. "..... shirt is it?"  "It's not mine."

6 Underline the correct word.

This is 1) I / my father. 2) He's / His name is John, and he works in an office. 3) Her / His favorite color is green, and he likes gardening. I like to play in 4) his / their garden with 5) my / me's friends. I love 6) my / mine father so much!

Possessives

Who's Alex = Who is Alex?

BUT

Whose hat is it? It's Alex's.

5 Write "Who's" or "Whose".

- 1, "...Who's... Alex?" → "She is my neighbor."
2. "...Whose... bike is it?" → "It's my cousin's."
3. "...Whose... phone is it?" → "It's Emma's."
4. "...Who's... that boy?" → "He's my brother."
5. "...Who's... Mr. Kevin?" → "He's the new teacher."
6. "...Whose... shirt is it?" → "It's not mine."

6 Underline the correct word.

This is 1) I / my father. 2) He's / His name is John, and he works in an office. 3) Her / His favorite color is green, and he likes gardening. I like to play in 4) his / their garden with 5) my / me's friends. I love 6) my / mine father so much!

