

Like / Love / Hate

+ -ing form

We often use -ing form after the verbs
like, love and hate.

I like playing tennis.

I hate going outside.

I love eating cakes.

1 Put the words in the brackets into the -ing form.

I really like _____ (spend)

time outdoors. On sunny days, I enjoy _____ (play) in the park

and _____ (watch) the birds

flying in the sky with my friends.

My family and I also love _____ (go) to the beach. We have so much fun building sandcastles and collecting seashells along the shore. However, I absolutely hate _____ (do) chores at home. I don't like _____ (clean) my room or _____ (wash) the dishes after dinner. But overall, I like _____ (explore) new places and _____ (meet) new friends. Life is full of exciting activities that I really enjoy!

Like / Love / Hate

+ -ing form

We often use -ing form after the verbs
like, love and hate.

I like playing tennis.

I hate going outside.

I love eating cakes.

1 Put the words in the brackets into the -ing form.

I really like spending (spend)

time outdoors. On sunny days, I enjoy playing (play) in the park

and watching (watch) the birds

flying in the sky with my friends.

My family and I also love going (go) to the beach. We have so much fun building sandcastles and collecting seashells along the shore. However, I absolutely hate doing (do) chores at home. I don't like cleaning (clean) my room or washing (wash) the dishes after dinner. But overall, I like exploring (explore) new places and meeting (meet) new friends. Life is full of exciting activities that I really enjoy!