

apart
distinguish between

out
begin a task or journey

set

down
write or record

forth
begin travelling

Complete the sentences with “apart”, “down”, “forth”, “out”

1. Can you set _____ everything the teacher said so we can study together later?
2. Her drawings always set her _____ in art class because they are so creative.
3. The ship set _____ across the sea with hopes of finding new land.
4. Please set _____ your ideas about the story so we can discuss them later.
5. The team set _____ on their mission to plant trees in the mountain area.
6. His ability to stay calm under pressure sets him _____ from his classmates.
7. We set _____ early in the morning to explore the countryside before it got too hot.
8. The group set _____ on a boat trip to visit the nearby island.
9. Her kindness and patience really set her _____ from other people in the group.
10. The travelers set _____ from the hotel, excited to see the old town.
11. They set _____ on a long walk to the village where their grandparents live.
12. His haircut sets him _____ from his friends.
13. Please set _____ your answer clearly so the teacher can read it easily.
14. The family set _____ for their vacation as soon as school was over.
15. This toy is really set _____ from the others because it teaches you new words.
16. His quick thinking and helpful attitude set him _____ during the group activity.
17. Please set _____ your full name and date of birth on this form.
18. The group of hikers set _____ on their adventure as the sun began to rise.
19. The children set _____ to build a snowman before the snow melted.
20. Before we forget anything, let's set _____ a list of everything we need to pack.
21. We set _____ to clean up the playground and make it safer for the children.
22. We set _____ to raise money for the animal shelter by selling lemonade.
24. She carefully set _____ her travel plans in a notebook so she wouldn't forget.

apart
distinguish between

out
begin a task or
journey

set

down
write or record

forth
begin travelling

Complete the sentences with “apart”, “down”, “forth”, “out”

- Can you set down everything the teacher said so we can study together later?
- Her drawings always set her _____ in art class because they are so creative. apart
- The ship set _____ across the sea with hopes of finding new land. forth
- Please set _____ your ideas about the story so we can discuss them later. down
- The team set _____ on their mission to plant trees in the mountain area. forth
- His ability to stay calm under pressure sets him _____ from his classmates.
- We set apart _____ early in the morning to explore the out countryside before it got too hot.
- The group set _____ on a boat trip to visit the nearby island. forth
- Her kindness and patience really set her _____ from other people in the group. apart
- The travelers set _____ from the hotel, excited to see the forth old town.
- They set _____ on a long walk to the village where their out grandparents live.
- His haircut sets him apart from his friends.
- Please set down your answer clearly so the teacher can read it easily.
- The family set out for their vacation as soon as school was over.
- This toy is really set apart from the others because it teaches you new words.
- His quick thinking and helpful attitude set him apart during the group activity.
- Please set down your full name and date of birth on this form.
- The group of hikers set forth on their adventure as the sun began to rise.
- The children set out to build a snowman before the snow melted.
- Before we forget anything, let's set down a list of everything we need to pack.
- We set out to clean up the playground and make it safer for the children.
- We set out to raise money for the animal shelter by selling lemonade.
- She carefully set down her travel plans in a notebook so she wouldn't forget.