

Complete the sentences with “after”, “at”, “for”, “round”

- I'm looking _____ my wallet — I think I left it at the café.
- Can you look _____ the kids while I make dinner?
- We looked _____ the museum and saw some amazing ancient tools.
- She looked _____ him carefully, trying to understand what he meant.
- They've been looking _____ a bigger flat since their second baby was born.
- Don't just look _____ the price — check the quality too.
- She's been looking _____ the perfect dress for her graduation ceremony.
- They asked me to look _____ their houseplants while they're abroad.
- We looked _____ the village and found a lovely little bakery.
- Look _____ this diagram — it shows how the machine works.
- Let's look _____ the city a bit before we go to the hotel.
- Look _____ this email — do you think it's real or a scam?
- I looked _____ my passport all night and finally found it under the sofa.
- My sister looks _____ our grandparents every weekend.
- When we looked _____ the school, the students seemed happy.
- I'll look _____ your phone while you go swimming.
- Let's look _____ the exhibition before it gets too crowded.
- She looked _____ the painting and smiled — it reminded her of her childhood.
- We were looking _____ a quiet café when it suddenly started to rain.
- Could you look _____ my suitcase for a moment?

Complete the sentences with “after”, “at”, “for”, “round”

- I'm looking for my wallet — I think I left it at the café.
- Can you look after the kids while I make dinner?
- We looked around the museum and saw some amazing ancient tools.
- She looked at him carefully, trying to understand what he meant.
- They've been looking for a bigger flat since their second baby was born.
- Don't just look at the price — check the quality too.
- She's been looking for the perfect dress for her graduation ceremony.
- They asked me to look after their houseplants while they're abroad.
- We looked around the village and found a lovely little bakery.
- Look at this diagram — it shows how the machine works.
- Let's look around the city a bit before we go to the hotel.
- Look at this email — do you think it's real or a scam?
- I looked for my passport all night and finally found it under the sofa.
- My sister looks after our grandparents every weekend.
- When we looked around the school, the students seemed happy.
- I'll look after your phone while you go swimming.
- Let's look around the exhibition before it gets too crowded.
- She looked at the painting and smiled — it reminded her of her childhood.
- We were looking for a quiet café when it suddenly started to rain.
- Could you look after my suitcase for a moment?