

TAKE

TAKE OFF
remove, leave the ground (plane), become

TAKE ON
accept responsibility or challenge; to employ someone

TAKE IN
absorb information, deceive, accommodate someone

TAKE OUT
remove, take someone on a date, order food to go

TAKE BACK
return something, admit a wrong statement

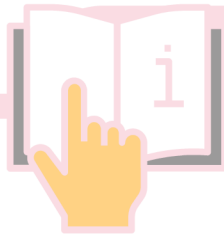

TAKE OVER
gain control or responsibility for someone

Complete the sentences with “off”, “on”, “in”, “out”, “back”, “over”

1. She quickly took _____ her coat as the room was too warm.
2. The company plans to take _____ fifty new employees next year.
3. He didn't mean what he said and later took it _____.
4. They took _____ the family business after their father retired.
5. I need to take _____ some cash before we head to the mall.
6. Don't be fooled by her kindness—she once took _____ several investors with a scam.
7. The plane took _____ despite the heavy fog.
8. She was too tired to take _____ all the details of the lecture.
9. You should take _____ that comment—it was really offensive.
10. We decided to take _____ sushi instead of cooking tonight.
11. His music career really took _____ after that viral video.

12. They agreed to take _____ a foreign student for the semester.
13. She's always willing to take _____ difficult tasks without hesitation.
14. I'm still trying to take _____ everything that happened yesterday.
15. The new manager will officially take _____ next Monday.
16. You should take _____ your shoes before entering the temple.
17. We're planning to take _____ my grandparents for dinner this weekend.
18. He took _____ his accusation once he realized he was wrong.
19. I can't take _____ any more projects right now—my schedule is full.
20. The restaurant doesn't allow dining in, but you can take food _____.
21. He was completely taken _____ by the fake news article.
22. The CEO plans to take _____ the negotiation process herself.

TAKE

TAKE OFF
remove, leave the ground (plane), become

TAKE ON
accept responsibility or challenge; to employ someone

TAKE IN
absorb information, deceive, accommodate someone

TAKE OUT
remove, take someone on a date, order food to go

TAKE BACK
return something, admit a wrong statement

TAKE OVER
gain control or responsibility for someone

Complete the sentences with “off”, “on”, “in”, “out”, “back”, “over”

1. She quickly took off her coat as the room was too warm.
2. The company plans to take on fifty new employees next year.
3. He didn't mean what he said and later took it back.
4. They took over the family business after their father retired.
5. I need to take out some cash before we head to the mall.
6. Don't be fooled by her kindness—she once took in several investors with a scam.
7. The plane took off despite the heavy fog.
8. She was too tired to take in all the details of the lecture.
9. You should take back that comment—it was really offensive.
10. We decided to take out sushi instead of cooking tonight.
11. His music career really took off after that viral video.

12. They agreed to take in a foreign student for the semester.
13. She's always willing to take on difficult tasks without hesitation.
14. I'm still trying to take in everything that happened yesterday.
15. The new manager will officially take over next Monday.
16. You should take off your shoes before entering the temple.
17. We're planning to take out my grandparents for dinner this weekend.
18. He took back his accusation once he realized he was wrong.
19. I can't take on any more projects right now—my schedule is full.
20. The restaurant doesn't allow dining in, but you can take food out.
21. He was completely taken in by the fake news article.
22. The CEO plans to take over the negotiation process herself.