

TURN

Turn out

To result / attend

Turn away

To reject or deny entry

Turn around

change direction / improve

Turn in

To go to bed / submit

Turn against

To become hostile toward

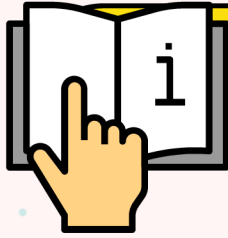

Turn to

To seek help from

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb from the list above:

1. When she felt lost, she decided to _____ her teacher for advice.
2. After the argument, he started to _____ his friends and no longer trusted them.
3. If you don't complete your homework, you'll have to _____ late tomorrow.
4. The event didn't _____ as we expected, but it was still enjoyable.
5. It's difficult to _____ a job offer when you've already made your decision.
6. The company decided to _____ its old policies in favor of a new strategy.
7. She tried to _____ the situation by thinking positively.
8. The team felt disappointed, but things began to _____ when they scored the first goal.
9. I tried to get into the club, but they _____ because I wasn't on the guest list.
10. When you face challenges, always remember to _____ your family for support.

TURN

Turn out

To result / attend

Turn away

To reject or deny entry

Turn around

change direction / improve

Turn in

To go to bed / submit

Turn against

To become hostile toward

Turn to

To seek help from

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb from the list above:

1. When she felt lost, she decided to turn to her teacher for advice.
2. After the argument, he started to turn against his friends and no longer trusted them.
3. If you don't complete your homework, you'll have to turn it in late tomorrow.
4. The event didn't turn out as we expected, but it was still enjoyable.
5. It's difficult to turn away a job offer when you've already made your decision.
6. The company decided to turn around its old policies in favor of a new strategy.
7. She tried to turn around the situation by thinking positively.
8. The team felt disappointed, but things began to turn around when they scored the first goal.
9. I tried to get into the club, but they turned me away because I wasn't on the guest list.
10. When you face challenges, always remember to turn to your family for support.