

Fill in the blanks. Use the correct phrasal verb (with correct tense and form).

- Why don't you _____ with us to the concert this weekend?
- I really _____ well with my new coworkers; we have a lot in common.
- Don't forget to _____ your camera to capture the beautiful moments.
- I decided to _____ their plan since it seemed like a good idea.
- The crowd started to _____ after the parade ended.
- If you're feeling down, just _____ to the party; it will cheer you up.
- My siblings and I didn't always _____ when we were kids, but now we're very close.
- She always _____ her favorite book when she travels.
- He tends to _____ whatever his friends suggest, even if he doesn't agree.
- The teacher asked the students to _____ to the next activity.
- I hope you can _____ to the meeting; your input would be valuable.
- It's important to _____ with your neighbors to maintain a peaceful environment.
- Please _____ your ID when you come to the event.
- She was hesitant at first, but eventually decided to _____ with the group's decision.
- After a brief stop, we need to _____ to reach our destination on time.

Fill in the blanks. Use the correct phrasal verb (with correct tense and form).

- Why don't you come along with us to the concert this weekend?
- I really get along well with my new coworkers; we have a lot in common.
- Don't forget to bring along your camera to capture the beautiful moments.
- I decided to go along with their plan since it seemed like a good idea.
- The crowd started to move along after the parade ended.
- If you're feeling down, just come along to the party; it will cheer you up.
- My siblings and I didn't always get along when we were kids, but now we're very close.
- She always brings along her favorite book when she travels.
- He tends to go along with whatever his friends suggest, even if he doesn't agree.
- The teacher asked the students to move along to the next activity.
- I hope you can come along to the meeting; your input would be valuable.
- It's important to get along with your neighbors to maintain a peaceful environment.
- Please bring along your ID when you come to the event.
- She was hesitant at first, but eventually decided to go along with the group's decision.
- After a brief stop, we need to move along to reach our destination on time.