

Complete the sentences with “back”, “up”, “in”, “out”, and “forward”

- This new product will bring _____ more money for our company.
- He brought _____ an interesting idea that we should discuss further.
- The manager asked the team to bring _____ their suggestions.
- That jacket really brings _____ the color of your eyes.
- The movie brought _____ many memories from my childhood.
- His music always brings _____ a lot of listeners online.
- The teacher asked the students to bring _____ topics for the project.
- Don't forget to bring _____ the tools you borrowed yesterday.
- She brought _____ the problem during the meeting.
- Good lighting can bring _____ the beauty of the room.
- The art show brought _____ hundreds of curious visitors from the city.
- She brought _____ seashells, sunshine, and stories from her beach trip.
- To win the game, we must bring _____ our strongest players.
- His kind smile always brings _____ the good in people.
- That old song brought _____ memories of dancing in the rain.
- The bakery's new cake brought _____ a crowd before noon.
- Her bravery brought _____ courage in everyone around her.
- She brought _____ a new way to recycle plastic at home using simple tools.
- Malcom was brought _____ by his grandparents.
- A little kindness can bring _____ the best in strangers.

Complete the sentences with “back”, “up”, “in”, “out”, and “forward”

- This new product will bring in more money for our company.
- He brought up an interesting idea that we should discuss further.
- The manager asked the team to bring forward their suggestions.
- That jacket really brings out the color of your eyes.
- The movie brought back many memories from my childhood.
- His music always brings in a lot of listeners online.
- The teacher asked the students to bring forward topics for the project.
- Don't forget to bring back the tools you borrowed yesterday.
- She brought up the problem during the meeting.
- Good lighting can bring out the beauty of the room.
- The art show brought in hundreds of curious visitors from the city.
- She brought back seashells, sunshine, and stories from her beach trip.
- To win the game, we must bring in our strongest players.
- His kind smile always brings out the good in people.
- That old song brought back memories of dancing in the rain.
- The bakery's new cake brought in a crowd before noon.
- Her bravery brought out courage in everyone around her.
- She brought forward a new way to recycle plastic at home using simple tools.
- Malcom was brought up by his grandparents.
- A little kindness can bring out the best in strangers.