

CALL

CALL OFF
cancel

CALL OUT
shout, criticize,
request help

CALL UP
make a phone call,
summon for service,
remember

CALL FOR
demand, require, go
and get someone

CALL IN
request someone's presence, phone a place

CALL BACK
return a phone call

Complete the sentences with “off”, “out”, “up”, “for”, “in”, “back”

1. They called _____ the event due to the heavy rain this morning.
2. I will call you _____ when I finish my meeting this afternoon.
3. The teacher called _____ my name during the roll call at the start.
4. Can you call _____ Sarah and tell her about the schedule change?
5. The situation called _____ quick decisions, so we all acted immediately.
6. Please call _____ if you need assistance with your project or assignment.
7. I forgot to call _____ my friend, but I'll do it soon.
8. They called _____ the meeting after several people failed to attend on time.
9. I need to call _____ the names of the winners after the contest.
10. If you have questions, call _____ and one of our staff will help.
11. He will call _____ his mother to confirm whether she is attending.
12. The teacher called _____ the answer, and the students repeated it aloud.
13. They called _____ more volunteers to help with the charity event tomorrow.
14. I need to call _____ the client to discuss the proposal later today.
15. The manager decided to call _____ the project because of financial constraints.
16. We should call _____ an expert to handle the technical problems immediately.
17. Can you call _____ John and remind him about the meeting this evening?
18. They called _____ the names of the winners during the graduation ceremony.
19. The situation calls _____ immediate action; we need to resolve it now.
20. I will call _____ my friend after finishing my work later this afternoon.

CALL

CALL OFF
cancel

CALL OUT
shout, criticize,
request help

CALL UP
make a phone call,
summon for service,
remember

CALL FOR
demand, require, go
and get someone

CALL IN
request someone's presence, phone a
place

CALL BACK
return a phone call

Complete the sentences with “off”, “out”, “up”, “for”, “in”, “back”

- They called off the event due to the heavy rain this morning.
- I will call you back when I finish my meeting this afternoon.
- The teacher called out my name during the roll call at the start.
- Can you call up Sarah and tell her about the schedule change?
- The situation called for quick decisions, so we all acted immediately.
- Please call in if you need assistance with your project or assignment.
- I forgot to call back my friend, but I'll do it soon.
- They called off the meeting after several people failed to attend on time.
- I need to call out the names of the winners after the contest.
- If you have questions, call in and one of our staff will help.
- He will call up his mother to confirm whether she is attending.
- The teacher called for the answer, and the students repeated it aloud.
- They called for/out more volunteers to help with the charity event tomorrow.
- I need to call in the client to discuss the proposal later today.
- The manager decided to call off the project because of financial constraints.
- We should call in an expert to handle the technical problems immediately.
- Can you call up John and remind him about the meeting this evening?
- They called out the names of the winners during the graduation ceremony.
- The situation calls for immediate action; we need to resolve it now.
- I will call up my friend after finishing my work later this afternoon.