

GIVE

OFF

emit or release

INTO

submit or succumb

BACK

return

IN TO

allow yourself
to be controlled by something

Complete the sentences with “off”, “into”, “back”, or “in to”

1. The old engine gave _____ a horrible burning smell.
2. After hours of negotiation, they finally gave _____ the pressure.
3. She refused to give _____ despair, even in tough times.
4. The factory gives _____ toxic fumes at night.
5. Please give _____ my pen when you're done using it.
6. He eventually gave _____ the temptation to skip his workout.
7. That candle gives _____ such a relaxing scent.
8. The children begged so much that she gave _____ them and bought ice cream.
9. The soldiers gave _____ the enemy after running out of supplies.
10. I forgot to give _____ the keys to the receptionist.
11. The glass gave _____ the pressure and shattered.
12. Don't give _____ anger; stay calm and think clearly.
13. After months of fighting, the walls finally gave _____ the ocean waves.
14. She gave _____ an air of confidence during the interview.
15. The smell of fresh bread gives _____ a cozy feeling.
16. He finally gave _____ the money he borrowed last year.
17. My legs gave _____ exhaustion after climbing the mountain.
18. He refused to give _____ fear and stood tall against the danger..
19. That old fireplace gives _____ enough heat to warm the entire cabin.
20. She promised to give _____ the necklace after the event.
21. The old building gave _____ the earthquake's force.
22. He didn't want to, but eventually gave _____ his curiosity and opened the box.
23. The lamp gives _____ a soft light that is perfect for reading.
24. After the meeting, he promised to give _____ the documents to the manager.

GIVE

OFF

emit or release

INTO

submit or succumb

BACK

return

IN TO

allow yourself
to be controlled by something

Complete the sentences with “off”, “into”, “back”, or “in to”

- The old engine gave off a horrible burning smell.
- After hours of negotiation, they finally gave in to the pressure.
- She refused to give in to despair, even in tough times.
- The factory gives off toxic fumes at night.
- Please give back my pen when you're done using it.
- He eventually gave into the temptation to skip his workout.
- That candle gives off such a relaxing scent.
- The children begged so much that she gave back them and bought ice cream.
- The soldiers gave into the enemy after running out of supplies.
- I forgot to give back the keys to the receptionist.
- The glass gave into the pressure and shattered.
- Don't give in to anger; stay calm and think clearly.
- After months of fighting, the walls finally gave into the ocean waves.
- She gave off an air of confidence during the interview.
- The smell of fresh bread gives off a cozy feeling.
- He finally gave back the money he borrowed last year.
- My legs gave into exhaustion after climbing the mountain.
- He refused to give into fear and stood tall against the danger..
- That old fireplace gives off enough heat to warm the entire cabin.
- She promised to give back the necklace after the event.
- The old building gave into the earthquake's force.
- He didn't want to, but eventually gave in to his curiosity and opened the box.
- The lamp gives off a soft light that is perfect for reading.
- After the meeting, he promised to give back the documents to the manager.