

GO

GO ON
continue

GO OUT
leave or socialize

GO OVER
review

GO BACK
return

GO OFF
explode, stop working
or make a noise

GO THROUGH
experience
or examine

Complete the sentences with “on”, “out”, “over”, “off”, “back”, or “through”

- The lights went _____ during the storm, and we were in the dark for hours.
- They had to go _____ a lot of paperwork before buying the apartment.
- I'm too exhausted to go _____ tonight—let's just stay in and watch a movie.
- We should go _____ the instructions carefully before we begin the experiment.
- She decided not to go _____ to her old job, even though the salary was good.
- The fireworks went _____ at midnight during the celebration.
- Could we go _____ your proposal one more time before the meeting?
- Although the movie was boring, we went _____ watching it until the end.
- He promised to go _____ and visit his hometown more often.
- I used to go _____ every weekend, but now I prefer quiet evenings at home.
- Before signing the contract, we must go _____ every detail.
- The teacher asked us to go _____ our essays and correct the mistakes.
- My phone's alarm went _____ while I was in the meeting, and it was really embarrassing.
- They finally went _____ the whole process of applying for a visa.
- Let's not go _____ to the same restaurant—we didn't enjoy it last time.
- I wish I could go _____ more, but I've been too busy with work lately.
- We need to go _____ the main points of the report before tomorrow's meeting.
- He said he would never go _____ to that place after what happened.
- She had to go _____ some tough decisions to reach this point.
- Just go _____ explaining—I'm listening.

GO

GO ON
continue

GO OUT
leave or socialize

GO OVER
review

GO BACK
return

GO OFF
explode, stop working
or make a noise

GO THROUGH
experience
or examine

Complete the sentences with “on”, “out”, “over”, “off”, “back”, “through”

- The lights went off during the storm, and we were in the dark for hours.
- They had to go through a lot of paperwork before buying the apartment.
- I'm too exhausted to go out tonight—let's just stay in and watch a movie.
- We should go over the instructions carefully before we begin the experiment.
- She decided not to go back to her old job, even though the salary was good.
- The fireworks went off at midnight during the celebration.
- Could we go over your proposal one more time before the meeting?
- Although the movie was boring, we went on watching it until the end.
- He promised to go back and visit his hometown more often.
- I used to go out every weekend, but now I prefer quiet evenings at home.
- Before signing the contract, we must go through every detail.
- The teacher asked us to go over our essays and correct the mistakes.
- My phone's alarm went off while I was in the meeting, and it was really embarrassing.
- They finally went through the whole process of applying for a visa.
- Let's not go back to the same restaurant—we didn't enjoy it last time.
- I wish I could go out more, but I've been too busy with work lately.
- We need to go over the main points of the report before tomorrow's meeting.
- He said he would never go back to that place after what happened.
- She had to go through some tough decisions to reach this point.
- Just go on explaining—I'm listening.